

10 Key Findings from the International Student Barometer

We asked 159,959 international students studying all around the world* how satisfied they are with their student experience. Here are ten of our key findings:

- 1 Recommendation:
83% would recommend their institution
- 2 Decision making:
93% say the institutions reputation is the most important factor in their decision making process
- 3 Arrival:
89% are satisfied with their arrival experience
- 4 Counselling:
Only 17% of international students are using the counselling services (however of those 17%, 90% of them are satisfied)
- 5 Work:
69% rated the opportunity to work while studying as an important factor when choosing a university
- 6 Support services:
The most used support service is catering at 74%
- 7 Learning:
87% are satisfied with their overall learning experience
- 8 Employability:
79% of international students are satisfied with the employability of their chosen course
- 9 Living:
87% say they are satisfied with their overall living experience
- 10 Internationalisation:
81% say they are pleased with the opportunities in their classrooms to experience different cultures

*Global student experience data from the 2016 International Student Barometer – survey of 159,959 students in 17 countries.

Established in 2005

In over 1400 Institutions

Across 33 Countries

Feedback from 2.9 million Students

The International Graduate Insight Group (i-graduate) provides the global benchmark for the student experience. We deliver comparative insight to the education sector, helping institutions deliver a world-class student experience to enhance competitive advantage.