

GRADUATE OUTCOMES SURVEY

i-graduate have a proven track record in tracking graduate outcomes and managing the entire process for you.

The instrument

The survey aims to contact leavers of universities six months after leaving to establish what type of employment or further study they are engaged in. i-graduate can manage this entire process for you. Our graduate outcomes services have been adopted by over 120 institutions.

The benefits of working with i-graduate

We understand. Our experienced team have a proven track record in managing the whole process.

Save money

We allow you to benefit from economies of scale - we offer competitive prices and real value for money. You can also fix your budget.

Save time

Free up your valuable resources and avoid hassle. Your staff can focus on their core roles.

You can trust us

Using state of the art collection and dissemination methods, we guarantee confidentiality and ensure results are accurate.

About i-graduate

i-graduate is the world leader in customer insight for the education sector. We provide the global benchmark for the student experience.

Established in	In over	Across	Feedback from over
2005	1400	32	2.5 million
	Institutions	Countries	Students

Take advantage of our survey software

We can minimise survey length through intelligent routing. Also, the survey can be completed on smart phones and branded with your logo.

Visualise results

Results are provided in 'interact', our data visualisation tool, enabling you to explore and drill down your results using a comprehensive set of filters including industry, course and study level.

Example interactive deliverables

What were you doing six months after leaving the institution?

How well did your overall experience in Higher Education:

The Next Step

E-mail info@i-graduate.org and we'll put you in touch with your nearest specialist.